About the Workshop

In the current scenario, teachers have multiple roles to perform. To fulfill their roles professionally, they need to be competent in their responsibilities towards their students inside and outside the classroom. One important role of the teacher is to provide guidance and counselling to students. The objective of this workshop is to impart basic counselling skills for the educators. This will add value and human touch to the services they provide to their students. Counselling enables students/individuals to develop awareness, options to solve problems in daily life through the enhancement of their strengths, resources and functioning in day today life. This programme involves Transactional Analysis as its principal framework. It provides a comprehensive model to understand behavioral patterns, communication, interpersonal relationship, motivation, time management, attitudes, conflict management and life span development for better living.
